

COMMISSIONED

THE WORDS OF JESUS IN THE WORLD OF A DISCIPLE

- 1) Read Matthew 28:18-20. Putting the Great Commission together, why is important to know as disciples of Jesus we are sent: one, under his authority, two, by his direction, and three, with his presence?
- 2) Why might it be important to know the Great Commission is relevant to every disciple of Jesus?
- 3) Jesus' presence is a "guarantee" of the fulfillment and accomplishment of the Great Commission. How would that change how we approach this mandate to making disciples of Jesus?

COMMISSIONED

THE WORDS OF JESUS IN THE WORLD OF A DISCIPLE

- 1) Read Matthew 28:18-20. Putting the Great Commission together, why is important to know as disciples of Jesus we are sent: one, under his authority, two, by his direction, and three, with his presence?
- 2) Why might it be important to know the Great Commission is relevant to every disciple of Jesus?
- 3) Jesus' presence is a "guarantee" of the fulfillment and accomplishment of the Great Commission. How would that change how we approach this mandate to making disciples of Jesus?

4) In this past week's sermon, Matt speaks on practicing the presence of God in our lives. Why is it important to know the practice prepares the proclamation?

5) Where in those four "practices" (conversation with His Spirit, meditation on His Word, proclamation of His Gospel, and participation in His Church) do you think you are not allowing yourself to "fire on all cylinders" as God has designed?

6) What might be a practical step for you to practice the presence of God this summer?

7) How would you appreciate others joining with you in prayer this week?

4) In this past week's sermon, Matt speaks on practicing the presence of God in our lives. Why is it important to know the practice prepares the proclamation?

5) Where in those four "practices" (conversation with His Spirit, meditation on His Word, proclamation of His Gospel, and participation in His Church) do you think you are not allowing yourself to "fire on all cylinders" as God has designed?

6) What might be a practical step for you to practice the presence of God this summer?

7) How would you appreciate others joining with you in prayer this week?